Social Collaboration Solutions

Kelros is an award-winning technology consultancy, specialising in the design, development and implementation of messaging and social collaboration solutions software built on IBM social technologies for clients in all industry sectors.

An IBM Gold Business Partner, our aim is to provide our clients with an industry-leading proposition, combining our deep understanding of the challenges businesses face with expert and detailed knowledge of the technology solutions. We offer a full range of services from consultation and development of a bespoke solution, through to deployment, training and ongoing support.

Established in 1996, we have grown continually and steadily, developing long-standing partnerships with our clients to deliver tangible, business benefits through integrated, easy to deploy solutions for sales and marketing, human resources, finance and operations.

We believe our clients draw confidence from the quality of the Kelros team. All of our technical consultants are IBM-certified with extensive specialist experience and we have a dedicated support team, to proactively monitor and support applications and messaging infrastructure for over 120 clients.

A key Kelros differentiator is IBM software licensing. Through optimised licensing agreements, we ensure our clients have low software acquisition costs and minimal administration tasks. We are proud to have been rated as IBM's top messaging and collaboration license re-seller in the mid-market UK for three years running.
