

How can manufacturers use collaboration to drive global growth?

Vispring

Vispring is a leading UK manufacturer of luxury beds

The company is driving a major expansion into Asia and North America

And needed to communicate effectively with employees around the world

Working with Kelros, Vispring used its dual entitlement licences to migrate from IBM Domino to IBM Verse and IBM Connections Cloud

Today, the company uses wikis, activities, communities and video conferences to nurture closer employee collaboration

Which helps Vispring to surge into new markets
